Online vs. In-person teaching:
All academic courses will be offered online.

For all courses, even for those which may have an in-person component, all students and all professors have the prerogative to work online and not be present on campus.

Large ensembles:
Students in strings and percussion can register to the following ensembles, which will involve some in-person activities in Tabaret 112:
  - Strings: MUS 3901
  - Winds: MUS 3911
  - Brass: MUS 3910
  - Percussion: MUS 3913.

These changes to the delivery of ensembles will not affect your capacity to graduate as planned.

Choirs and opera will be offered in a combination of in-person and online activities.

MUS 2943/3943/4943 – Orchestral repertoire:
We regretfully had to cancel MUS2943E/3943E/4943E (Orchestral Repertoire for winds and brass). Please ensure to register to another 3-credit MUS course in order to fulfill your program's credit requirement.
Sections that are offered will be online.

MUS 1902 – Class Piano is cancelled this year; this program requirement is being waived for 4th-year students as well as for 5th-year students in the combined BMus/BSc only.

We are currently planning to hold recitals and juries in person, following all the necessary safety protocols. They will not be public. Should a lockdown be imposed, recitals and juries will be recorded and posted on YouTube for evaluation.

Instrumental classes (e.g. MUS 3950-56) have been cancelled this fall; more information to come for the winter term. Please note that we are offering MUS 4302 in the fall as a seminar on teaching high school music.

Studio classes will be delivered in an online format.

Information about booking practice space in Perez is found in this handout.
